VOL. XIII—NO. 3776. NEW-YORK, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1863. PRICE THREE CENTS.

IMPORTANT FROM CHATTANOOGA.

The Report of a Flanking Movement by Bragg not Reliable.

Communication with Bridgeport by the River Opened.

Gen. Palmer Drives the Rebels from Lookout Mountain.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 27, via NASHVILLE, Oct. 28.

The intelligence received here of the movement of a portion of BRAGG's army, under LONGSTREET, up the valley of the Tennessee River, with the intention of operating against Gen. BURNSIDE, is not altogether reliable. It is also reported that a corps of LEE's army, under EWELL, is moving into East Tennessee, by way of Lynchburgh, for the same purpose.

L. L. CROUNSE.

REPORTS VIA CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, Thursday, Oct. 29.

The Gazette has a dispatch from Chattanooga, dated the 27th instant, which says:

A detachment under Col. STANLEY, of the Eleventh Ohio regiment, floated fifty pontoons down the river in face of the rebel sharpshooters, landed at Brown's Ferry, and surprised and drove the rebels from the ridge on the south side, opening communication with Bridgeport.

The rebels are flanked and must evacuate Lookout Mountain.

A second dispatch says that Gen. HAZEN with 2,000 of Gen. PALMER's division, attacked the enemy on Lookout Mountain, and drove him from his position.

Gen. McPHERSON's expedition to Canton, Miss., resulted in destroying a large number of rebel mills and factories, the defeat and dispersion of the rebel cavalry, and general discomfiture of the guerrillas infesting that section.

A special dispatch to the Bulletin is as follows:

CINCINNATI, Thursday, Oct. 29.

Our loss in the brilliant achievement at Chattanooga was only five killed and fifteen wounded, of Gen. HAZEN's brigade.

Gen. PALMER is assigned to the command of the Fourteenth army corps.

Communication will be opened between Bridgeport and Chattanooga along the Chattanooga River.

The Rebel Opinion of Rosecrans.

From the Richmond Examiner, Oct. 26.

Meantime, Lincoln is helping us. He has removed from command the most dangerous man in his army, and put two fools in his place. A variety of mean and damaging pretexts for ROSECRANS' removal have been published by the Yankee Press. But the true reason is the fact that he failed at Chicamauga, and the Abolitionist Government adheres to its system of dismissing every General who incurs defeat. LINCOLN has, however, more reason than usual for the act, if it be true that he desired ROSECRANS to stop at Chattanooga, and if the latter attempted his Napoleonic operation in Georgia on his own responsibility. That extraordinary step can only be explained on the ground that the Yankee's head had been turned by his success in Tennessee. * * *

Rosecrans, thus retired, is unquestionably the greatest Captain the Yankee nation has yet produced. His performances in the field are too fresh in the memory of every reader to necessitate recapitulation. We may, however, mention, in proof of his intellectual ability, that he graduated fifth at West Point, in a class of fifty-six, in which Gen. G. W. SMITH graduated eighth, and LONGSTREET fifty-fourth.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

A Part of Lee's Army Certainly gone to Operate against Burnside—Gen. Meade Protecting the Orange and Alexandria Railroad—Rebel Demonstration on the Sixth Corps.

An army officer who has frequent opportunities of conversing with rebel deserters, and with citizens coming into our lines from places along the line of the Gordonsville Railroad, says that they all agree in their statements, that LEE has sent a portions of his force to operate against BURNSIDE in East Tennessee. One whole division of ELWELL's corps left for Lynchburgh last week, and it was reported by rebel officers that a portion of PICKETT's force had left Petersburgh for the same destination. The report that any portion of LONGSTREET's corps has returned from the southwest is untrue.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 29.

Gen. MEADE has within a day or two made some changes in the position of his forces looking to the better protection of those engaged in the re-construction of the Orange and Alexandria railroad.

While this change was being effected, at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, the rebels made a demonstration against the Sixth corps, but nothing further was accomplished than the driving in of the pickets of that corps a short distance, when the rebels retired.

The Alexandria Journal says that the trains on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad now make regular trips to Catlett's Station, some 13 miles beyond Manassas. The road will be put in complete repair as far out as the army has advanced, in course of four or five days more. So much for the story which stated that it would take months to repair the road.

It is ascertained from Col. WELLS, the Provost-Marshal General of the defences south of the Potomac, that large numbers of refugees—principally British subjects—are daily coming into our lines from the South; also, deserters from the rebel army as well as others flying from the rebel conscription.

The Battle of Bristoe Station.

A STATEMENT REGARDING THE TROOPS ENGAGED.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

In your issue of the 21st inst. your army correspondent unintentionally, no doubt, does injustice to the Third division of the Second corps. This division is largely composed of New-York troops, and I therefore deem it proper to submit some statements for publication by way of correction.

But two brigades of the Second division were in the battle of Bristoe Station, the Second brigade having been detailed to guard the ammunition train.

The First division was there, but not engaged with the enemy. Its position was on the extreme left of the line, which was not attacked until late in the evening, and then only by artillery, which attack was repelled handsomely by ARNOLD's battery. The attack of the enemy was met by two brigades (First and Third) of the Second division, Gen. WEBB commanding, and two brigades (Second and Third) of the Third division, Gen. HAYES commanding. These were all the troops actually engaged. The First brigade of the Third division having acted as rear-guard of the corps, did not come up in time to take part.

The Second division had marched along the railroad in the advance, and came into position under cover immediately. The Third division having debouched to the right of the railroad about 300 yards, had to march that distance by the left flank, under a most severe fire, in order to reach the position assigned to it, viz.: in the deep cut of the railroad. This accounts for the heavier loss of the Third division, and particularly of the Third brigade, which received the heaviest fire of all, and, of course, lost the greatest number of men.

Of the seven guns admitted by the enemy to have been lost, four were taken by OWEN's brigade, (the Third,) of HAYS' division; and of the one thousand men admitted to have been lost, most of these taken prisoners, came in and surrendered on the right of OWEN's brigade.

The most effective artillery fire was from ARNOLD's battery in position in the rear of OWEN's brigade; and the enemy's flank was turned by Col. SMITH's brigade, (the second of HAYS'.)

The loss in OWEN's brigade was greater in killed and wounded than in all the Second division, and the enemy's fire was heavier upon the right of his line than upon any other part of the entire front. Two regiments of the Second division, First Minnesota and Seventh Michigan, strayed and formed in OWEN's line, and remained there until evening, doing good service.

JUSTITIA.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 26, 1863.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 29.

STATE FUNDS ON DEPOSIT TO BE TAXED.

By a decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, made to-day, deposits of tolls by Canal Collectors, in banks of the State of New-York, as well as deposits by the Commissioners of the Canal Fund in the four banks at Albany, and the Manhattan Bank in New-York, beyond the amount of their circulation respectively, are subject to assessment and taxation under the Internal Revenue act. Canal deposit banks of the State of New-York are not part of the legal machinery of the Treasury of that State, as has been claimed. For the purposes of taxation there is no distinction between money of a State loaned to a Bank and money of a private person loaned to a Bank. Nor in case of the Manhattan Bank does it make any difference that that institution does not pay interest, and holds the funds of the State as its financial agent and subject to the State's call. The money, while held by it, is a deposit. It is used, too, by the Manhattan Company in its ordinary business for Banking purposes, and therefore is taxable.

THE LOST FUNDS ON THE STEAMER RUTH.

The Court of Inquiry into the loss of Government funds by the burning of the steamer Ruth, has reported that she was fired by an incendiary, not for the particular purpose of destroying the public funds on board, but in conformity with what appears to be a plan of the rebels for the destruction of the water transportation in the Valley of the Mississippi, and thus crippling the movements of our armies. No Government officer or agent having the funds in charge is blamed for misconduct or neglect of duty in the premises. The report is approved.

COL. BILLY WILSON.

It is probable that authority will be granted to BILLY WILSON to raise a brigade in New-York City. Of course his success will be speedy and abundant. He is going to New-York before Tuesday to vote, and desires it to be known that his ballot shall be cast for the maintenance of the Union and the prosecution of the war. The Colonel brought here the warmest written recommendations from his Commanding Generals to Government to promote him to a Brigadiership, and to authorize him to bring new troops into the field.

THE INTEREST ON THE FIVE-TWENTIES.

The interest on the five-twenty bonds falling due Nov. 1, is a little less than two millions on bonds issued before the 1st day of May. The interest upon bonds issued since that date is to be added to the above sum—making it a little above two millions. The interest upon other National stocks is payable on the 1st of January and 1st of July.

THE INVALID CORPS.

The limitation in paragraph five, General Orders No. 173, under which no officer of the Invalid Corps can receive a commission higher than the grade of Major, is removed. The grades of Colonel and Lieutenant-Colonel are authorized from Sept. 5, 1863.

RESURRECTIONISTS AT THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES.

A profound feeling of horror and resentment has been excited by the discovery that resurrectionists have disturbed the dead soldiers in the military graveyard near the Soldier's Home. Many have been disinterred and removed. Their empty coffins lie in the adjoining woods.

APPOINTMENT.

Hon. JOHN W. KILLINGER, ex-member of Congress, has been appointed Assessor of the Twelfth Collection District of Pennsylvania, vice EARLY resigned.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 29.

THE FIVE-TWENTY BONDS.

Deposits made for the five-twenty bonds on Monday next, the 2d of November, will not, it is ascertained at the Treasury Department, entitle depositors to bonds with full coupons from the 1st of November.

SECRETARY FIELD.

The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. FIELD, has sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume his official duties.

THE STATE QUOTAS OF VOLUNTEERS.

In the recent announcement of the "quotas" to the several States, under President LINCOLN's proclamation of Oct. 17, calling out an additional 300,000 men, the deficiencies of the States under former calls, and under the recent draft, are taken account of only in reference to a subsequent draft, in case another is rendered necessary by the failure to furnish the full quota of volunteers.

It is presumed that there will be no draft in those States which raise their quota of three hundred thousand volunteers called for by the President's proclamation, but in States where, through failure to raise their quota of the three hundred thousand volunteers, the draft has to be resorted to, all deficiencies at the time existing in such State will be taken into account. Drafted men and substitutes are entitled to the one hundred dollars bounty provided by law, and not to the increased bounty of three hundred dollars offered to volunteer recruits.

PACIFIC RAILROAD DIRECTORS.

SPRINGER HARBOUGH, of Pennsylvania, and T. J. CARTER, of Illinois, have been appointed as the two Government Directors of the Pacific Railroad Company, as provided by law.

APPOINTMENT.

WM. N. GROVER has been appointed United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri, in place of WM. W. EDWARDS, removed.

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON.

The Bombardment Reopened on Monday Last—The Rebels Report no Damage Done.

FORTRESS MONROE, Thursday, Oct. 29.

The Richmond Enquirer of Oct. 27 contains the following intelligence:

CHARLESTON, Monday, Oct. 26.

The enemy's batteries, Gregg and Wagner, opened fire at 11 o'clock this morning, with seven guns from the former and four from the latter. The fire was principally directed against Forts Sumter and Johnson. Two monitors were also engaged.

The firing ceased at dusk. One hundrrd shots were thrown from Morris Island and 160 from the monitors.

We fired from Moultrie. No damage done us yet. Our batteries replied vigorously.

MISCELLANEOUS CONTINENTAL NEWS.

CAPE RACE, Thursday, Oct. 29.

The steamship Germania, from Hamburg, via Southampton on the 21st inst., passed Cape Race at 11 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, and the Royal Mail steamship City of Washington, from Liverpool, Oct. 21, via Queenstown, Oct. 22, passed Cape Race this noon. Both steamers were boarded by the news yacht of the Associated Press, and the following summary of news was obtained:

The Germania has the United States mails, 680 passengers, and a full cargo.

The dates per the Germania are three days later than those already received, and those by the City of Washington two days later still.

The steamship Glasgow, from New-York, arrived at Queenstown on the 20th inst.

The steamship City of Manchester and the screw steamer America arrived out on the 22d.

AMERICAN TOPICS.

The Alabama, Georgia and Tuscarora continue cruising around the coast of the Cape of Good Hope.

The Vanderbilt had arrived at the Cape in pursuit of the Alabama, and was repairing in Simon's Bay.

Capt. SEMMES has sold the bark Sea Bride.

No further captures had been made by the rebel vessels.

Capt. SEMMES will not, from motives of policy, seek an engagement with the Vanderbilt, but if his vessel should be blockaded in Simon's Bay by her will endeavor to elude her as she did the San Jacinto at Martinique.

Capt. SEMMES is of the opinion that the Vanderbilt is very much faster than the Alabama, and that if he should come to close quarters with her that he could not get away from her.

HENRY WARD BEECHER addressed an immense audience in Exeter Hall, London, on the 20th inst., upon the interests of the North. A few expressions of dissent were drowned in the general plaudits of the vast assemblage.

The Daily News says one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in London must have convinced Mr. BEECHER of the truth of Earl RUSSELL's assertion, that the great body of the English people were with the North, and cause him to return home as a messenger of peace and good-will between the two countries.

The Times combats Mr. BEECHER's arguments, and declares that he is not the man to convert the British public to the Federal cause.

Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railway shares have advanced 2½ per cent.

The Confederate loan is quoted at 65@67.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The British Admiralty had decided to construct a new squadron of iron gunboats, armor-plated double-screw propellers, to be armed with two heavy Armstrong guns.

FRANCE.

The Moniteur says that the movements in Caucassus are serious.

The Pays denies that France participated in the negotiations upon the Polish question, and states that Austria and England are endeavoring to come to an understanding on the subject of an identical note. France awaits the result of these negotiations. Europe knows that France will adhere to every act according with existing circumstances, and satisfying public opinion in Europe, which the agreement of the three Powers desire to represent.

THE RUSSIAN BALL.

The Preparations on an Unprecedented Scale.

The Academy of Music to be Made a Fairy Palace.

THE BANQUETING IN IRVING HALL.

DELMONICO'S CULINARY AUSTERLITZ.

The grand Russian Ball, the anticipated splendors of which agitate the dreams of all Japonicadom, is close at hand, the date having been fixed for Friday, November 5. The banquets, junketing, speech-making and excursions that have preceded it ring through the length and breadth, not only of America, but even of Europe; and the Cossack sentry, far away on the borders of Caucasia, has by this time caught the rumor of the wonderful friendship displayed by the people of the West for his Supreme Hetman, the Czar. It is quite in place, then, that there should be a special flutter here about the crowning festival, and we are happy in being able, this morning, to communicate some highly interesting particulars on the subject.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC

is, as all know, to be the scene of the general display. There will be transacted all the promenading, grouping, bowing and scraping, flirting and dancing. The edifice itself will, of course, do its best. Retouching, repainting, dusting, and scrubbing, greatly needed will brighten its general appearance. The whole interior will be thrown as far as possible into one vast space, the scenes removed and the parquet floored substantially throughout its entire extent. The decorations on the galleries and walls will not be so crowded and overdone as upon former like occasions, but selected with special taste and an eye to rich, but simple effect. LEWIS, the scenic artist of the establishment, is preparing some splendid and altogether novel combinations, and every ornamental appliance will be freshly original. Workmen are now engaged in repapering the lobbies in imitation of maple and satin-wood. These, as well as the other portions of the interior, are also to be furnished with new crimson carpets, which, in contrast with the statuary and marble vases ladened with blooming exotics that are to stud each "coigne of vantage," will alone compose a brilliant picture. The draperies of flags, the wreaths and garlands, the thickets of evergreens and rare flowers, the lighting up a giorno from innumerable jets and chandeliers, and the superb grouping of fair dames and gallant gentlemen, in their freshest and brightest gala dresses, will offer a spectacle surpassing all the preceding fêtes that gave New-York renown. The interior will afford accommodation for 3,000 persons, including the floors, corridors, side-rooms, boxes and galleries, with space to move and breathe at ease, and care will be taken that all the frightful heat, crowding and destruction of dress and decorations that marred other festivals in the same place shall be avoided. Over the stage will be stretched a superb new white canopy with golden fringes, and beneath and beyond it will be arranged the most beautiful international devices. The building will be admirably and ingeniously ventilated; the atmosphere continually renewed, yet soft and summery, with perfumes rising from groves of oranges and citrons, and bowers of myrtle and jessamine, starred with all the choicest beauties of the lands of the sun, or of "any other lands." Cloak and dressing-rooms are to be so arranged that there need be none of the old confusion. Having thus in outline foreshadowed the arrangements of the grand dancing palace, now to

THE SUPPER ROOM.

Turning to the entrances of the Academy on Irving-place, the distinguished visitors will be conducted, at a given hour, through a covered passage across the way to Irving Hall, now under the control of Messrs. BENEDICT & HARRISON. The assemblage, after leaving the Academy, will be in charge of LAFAYETTE HARRISON, Esq., whose taste and liberality are widely known. In the present instance his reputation is to be most worthily sustained. The passage leading to Irving Hall is an ingenious work, to be put up and removed again within twenty-four hours. It will be 125 feet long, 17 feet high, and 26 feet wide, and lead from the vestibule of one building to that of the other. It will be solidly put together, and so inclosed that neither the November air nor prying outside curiosity can invade it. It will be elegantly carpeted, draped with hangings of blue, gold and white, the Russian colors, and decorated with international devices, Russian and American emblems, escutcheons and shields. The passage-way, which will take the whole width of the Hall, at its entrance, will be illuminated with 12 large gas-chandeliers wreathed and entwined with evergreens and flowers. After crossing the street, the guests will be dazzled by a coup d'œil inferior only to the Academy scene itself. The entrance and lobbies of Irving Hall will be freshly decorated in green and black walnut, and the grand hall, the banqueting apartment, will be adorned and dressed in crimson, with white medallions of flower-work. The room is 100 feet in length by 71 in width, and 37½ in height; it will be finely illuminated, and with its canopies of flags, its vases and groups of exotics, its display of Muscovite and American banners and emblems, and the enticing array of the tables, the Hall will well nigh eclipse the Academy. DELMONICO will, for the first time, have here a fair and open field, and intends to make the occasion his battle of the Pyramids—(no allusion to the creams and jellies,)—his Austerlitz. At the Prince of Wales Supper he was pinched for room, and the whole affair was in a barn—a barrack; but here the whole basement range of Irving rooms and kitchens will be at his disposal, and he can make an effort worthy of his "genius."

THE TABLES

will be arranged on each side and to the rear of the hall, the guests occupying them from the centre; the army of waiters will be ranged in the passages next the walls, and thus separated from the company, although at the most convenient points to serve them. At the banqueting board there will be accommodation for 800 persons at one time and from 11 P. M. onward the supper will be served. The wines, viands, confectionery, fruit, etc., and ornaments will surpass any catering attempted in this country. A fine band of 40 pieces will furnish the music in the supper-room. Two celebrated bands of 50 performers each will furnish music in the Academy. Take the whole festival together and it will surpass in all its features any that have hitherto delighted the great American Metropolis.

Tickets to the Russian Ball.

Each of the General Committee is entitled to five tickets to the Russian ball; these can be obtained at the rooms of the Executive Committee, No. 49 Wall-street, on Monday next.

GRAND UNION RALLY.

Mass Meeting at the Cooper Institute.

Speeches by William Curtis Noyes of New-York, Lewis Barker of Maine, Gov. Yates of Illinois, Hon. Schuyler Colfax of Indiana, Hon. Galusha A. Grow of Pennsylvania, and Col. Thos. H. Gibbs of Tennessee.

The last grand rally of the loyal citizens of New-York City, prior to the election on Tuesday next, took place last evening at the Cooper Institute. The spacious hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and four large meetings were held without the building, which were addressed by local speakers. The hall was decorated for the occasion with our national colors, and over the stage was a cartoon on canvas representing the Governor of this State addressing his "friends."

The meeting was called to order by WILLIAM A. DARLING, who announced as the presiding officer WILLIAM CURTIS NOYES.

On taking the Chair, Mr. NOYES thanked the meeting for the honor conferred on him in allowing him to preside over the meeting. He desired to call the attention of the assembly before him to the great interests now involved in this contest. The Constitution, he said, was a great work, and wiser, under Providence, than its framers. It knew no servile race, but it contemplated the final eradication of that oppression in our land. In a constitutional form, the people of this country had said that Slavery was not a national blessing, but a national curse, and should not be extended. But thirteen States subject to the sway of the Government had destroyed the Constitution, and bade defiance to those States which obeyed it. They set up a new Government and indefinable lines with new causes for quarrel. They refused a convention to settle the difficulties, but made Slavery the corner-stone of the new Government, and sought the arbitrament of war. We, too, had invoked the God of battles, having faith in His justice. The war was not yet ended, but the extremities of the rebellion were within the clutches of our arms. Their leaders were discouraged and knew that defeat only could await them. With victory to our arms over the revolution of July, they saw that their only hope was to place their aiders and abettors at the North in power. Though intervention was beyond their hope, the tone of certain foreign Powers had changed to our favor. Great Britain had made haste to recognize the South as a belligerent, but had now seen the necessity, as far as she could, to withhold further sympathy. The French Government was seeking to plant a throne in Mexico, it was said, to grasp some of the revolted States. England and France, it was said, desired to overthrow our Government; but our Constitution had outlived form after form of government in France, and constitution after constitution. Our Constitution-making was more perfect than in France. Assignats—paper money—without the chance of redemption, was the only money in the Revolution of France. Traitors dominated in the streets of Paris. England presented a better contrast, but, nevertheless, her flexible constitution had been greatly changed. The writ of habeas corpus had been again and again suspended and once for eight years. Conspirators and plots during the last part of GEORGE III.'s reign. GEORGE IV. also held practically an absolute sway; but the milder WILLIAM had practically given a new Constitution, and change upon change had taken place since VICTORIA had taken the throne. But during all this time our Constitution had remained unchanged, except in some slight needful points. During the past twenty years had England and France been in terrible wars; but in our midst peace and prosperity had nearly all the time reigned. Our Government must be perpetuated, because we thought it best. We had domestic enemies more dangerous than foreign foes. They were the managers of a time-honored party who, in the name of Democracy, forgot the teachings of its founders. They were the secret friends of the rebellion. They were jubilant only over our defeats, and sorrowful only when our armies met with success. They had opposed every measure to put down the rebellion, had rejoiced in the rebel invasions, and had sought to get up a counter revolution here in support of it, and in every way had sought to dishearten the people and encourage our enemies. They sought to reverse the order of things—to abrogate the Emancipation Proclamation, born of war and necessity, and to reëstablish here, perhaps, the institution of Slavery. But should we have peace with a divided Union, or peace with the Union restored? It should be with the continuation of the war that resulted in the enfranchisement of thirty millions of men. [Applause.]

A list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries was then put in nomination and acceded to. Among them were the following:

Hon. E. DELAFIELD SMITH, by request of the Committee, offered a long series of resolutions. They set forth that the Whig and Democratic parties have fulfilled their missions and are defunct; that there is no distinction between those who adhere to a foreign despot or to a domestic traitor; rejoice that the Democratic masses are following their tried leaders and wheeling in for the Union; render acknowledgements to the army and navy; congratulate the loyal on the defeat of WOODWARD, TUTTLE and VALLANDIGHAM; warmly commend the Administration, the ability and success of which are recognized with pride by the loyal people of the nation; approve the acts of Congress in regard to the enrollment, bounties, and the habeas corpus, confiscation of rebel property, opening the lands of the South to free white labor, arming friendly troops of every color, creed and clime, and of the President's immortal proclamation for the perpetual emancipation of the slaves." The State ticket is cordially indorsed, as are the nominations for County and Judicial Officers; the coalition of the hostile factions of the opposition, in this City is denounced as unprincipled, and the resolutions conclude with asserting that no upright citizen can fail to perceive that the honor and safety of New-York are involved in the success (to be achieved only by organized effort and persistent good faith) of the ENTIRE UNION COUNTY and JUDICIAL TICKET.

The President then appropriately introduced LEWIS BARKER, of Maine.

Mr. BARKER said that when he came to this City and saw his name announced to speak at the Cooper Institute to-night, he had arranged a nice little speech, but here he had forgotten it all, and he must now fall back upon the ideas that should come to him spontaneously. He had heard the resolutions that had been read. They were in the same spirit as those that they went into the campaign in Maine with, though somewhat longer he must confess. He had drawn a series of resolutions in a school-house as follows:

1. Resolved, That this rebellion is unconstitutional.
2. Resolved, That it is constitutional to put it down.
3. Resolved, That Mr. LINCOLN is putting it down.
4. Resolved, That we will support him in putting it down.
5. Resolved, That Mr. CONEY goes for the right.
6. Resolved, That we go for Mr. CONEY. [Loud applause.]

When the bold and bad men of the South set this rebellion in motion, they relied upon three elements for support. First, that the Northern men would not fight. But two years and a half had gone by, and our boys had gone down to the South, and had vindicated Northern courage and Northern valor—that our patriotism did not show itself in Fourth platitudes. [Applause.] Their second reliance, that if we did rouse ourselves to the effort to save the country, after having sent the navy abroad and robbed the arsenals, was foreign intervention. Their programme was to divide the country and count out New-England any way. New-York was to be received, provided the friends of Gov. SEYMOUR could control the Government of the State. As a New-England son he thanked the South for the compliment. They had too many school-houses, too many churches, too many pious mothers to make New-England a desirable partner in such an unholy alliance. But New-England was not going out, and was not going to let the South go out. [Applause.] New-England had a missionary spirit, and when Bibles and tracts failed to convert, they intended, like the Methodist minister did the infidel blacksmith, to maul the faith of God into them and save their unbelieving souls. [Applause.] They all knew how quick Great Britain had been to recognize the South as a belligerent power, but he thanked God that the proclamation of emancipation had caused that power to hold back in her career of wrong, and to give aid only surreptitiously. And we were keeping a ledger account of her latter services to the rebellion, and the day would come when we should ask her to settle. That proclamation measure he, who had never touched a Republican vote, would never have sustained as a civil measure, but as a military measure he accepted and maintained it. [Applause.] The third hope of the rebels was a divided North, and that came home to him. They had calculated that the Democratic masses who had never held office should be sold out by their treasonable leaders. The dagger that went to the heart of their old party had come from their friends—members of their own household. Year after year they of the Democracy had gone and voted with the South at a fearful cost. They had been pointed at as Northern men of Southern principles; yet they had been true to them. One after another they had sustained their "brethren of the South" in their exactions. After all this, how cruel it was to transfer them to the rebels; and the South would never have undertaken the rebellion had they not supposed the bargain was good. Through the Democratic leaders, we were sold out; but, thank God, 20,000 in Maine refused to be sold. But they had lost 15,000 through the election of SEYMOUR here. That defeat of the loyal men had caused the Democrats to hope, and BION BRADBURY—a Douglas man—rushed to the Copperhead camp, and carried with him fifteen thousand votes; but the rest remained, and they carried the State against him. But when the guns had fired upon Sumter they had snapped the links that bound them to party, and he had sworn that never should our people lay down their arms until the rebellion was put down. We had passed two years and a half in war, and the question now arose what we were to do. On Tuesday next the people of this State were to have an election, and he would like to ask how they were going to vote? Party at this time sunk into insignificance when the question was, whether we should have a government for any party to administer. The Republican party of this State had done a noble thing, and the same party in Maine had done substantially the same thing. They had tendered to us Democrats this Union platform. They (the Republican party) had gone into power upon the issue of a non-extension of Slavery. They had receded from that after the election, and had practically passed acts to organize territories on the Douglas platform, and had refused to pass the Wilmot Proviso. They went further, providing for the passage of an act that Slavery should not be meddled with in the States. They had gone further to carry out the fugitive Slave law with greater efficiency than ever before; and now they asked us Democrats to stand on the one plank of devotion to the Union. The issues that divided parties in the past were now gone. There was a test for the Union Democrat. If he was loyal, he could step on that platform. Democracy was liberty—the right of majority to govern. But guerrillas were placing the Democracy in opposition to that principle. Nobody asked them to join the Republican party. They joined in a temporary organization, the sole purpose of which was to restore the Union. Wait till that was done, and then if Democrats wanted to skin the Republicans they could do so. Then, too, Democrats were objecting to the war because it was prosecuted in an unconstitutional manner. With the Copperheads everything was unconstitutional except the rebellion itself. But if they would look closely at the men who thus made this objection, they would find the brand of Copperhead upon them, and the words, "I am the slave of JEFF. DAVIS." We of the Democratic party had always been the war party. For the first time in the history of that party it was arrayed against the Government. They say now, "I don't like this Republican war. When we were in power we had peace; but the Republicans have not been in power three years, and they have war all the time. But this was a nice little Democratic war. Abuse the Republican party as it would, there was not to-day a Black Republican who was in arms against the Government. [Applause.] And who were in arms against it? None but Democrats—men of our own household. Others objected to a war for abolition—to a nigger war. But we Democrats had done our whole duty to the institution of Slavery in the past. It was the slaveholders who had exacted and cut the pound of flesh nearest the Northern heart, and to-day we were all Abolitionists either for Slavery or freedom. [Applause.] The issue was fairly made. Let Slavery die. [Applause and cheers.] Some wanted the country saved with the Union as it was. But as it was when? We preferred that it be not saved as it was, so that wrong, and outrage, and injustice could be done; but that it be saved as it ought to be. [Applause.]

The Chairman then introduced Gov. YATES, of Illinois, who was received with loud applause. He alluded to to the eloquent address of Mr. BARKER, of Maine. He said that he came from the far West, and as he came to them from his home—passing through Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania—he did not experience that he had crossed State lines, but he felt that there was his country, in the West and East alike. When he looked upon the sunny South, he could still say there was his country. He was not unaware that they were on the eve of an important election. He was here to-night because he felt as much interest in the result of the election as they did. We were to try the question whether the country should live or die, and upon they in New-York now depended to a great degree the question. They of the West had given their vote. Pennsylvania had sent its voice, too; and he knew that New-York would ratify their decision. Before this war commenced, our people lived in unexampled peace and prosperity. It was this country that JEFF. DAVIS, VALLANDIGHAM, SEYMOUR and BEN WOOD would destroy. But the Union should be preserved now and forever. It had been alleged that this war was begun for the negro. It was not our war—it was the war of the slaveholders. They it was who fired on the steamer descending the Mississippi, and upon Sumter, and if Slavery was lost to them upon their heads be the blame. If Slavery died it had committed suicide. We had ever been ready to stand by the bond by which Slavery was secured to the South, but if he to-day had the power he would now write upon the firmament in indellible letters that not a slave should ever wear chains in the American Republic. Slavery had strewn the country with wrecks. It had divided Christian churches, political parties, and now had raised its arm against the Union, and he said let it die. [Applause.] It was the attempt on the part of Slavery to assert its supremacy in the Government that had caused this rebellion. Each successive effort to stop the practical recognition of that idea had been met with a threat that if it were successful, the Government should be destroyed. The contest now pending was between Slavery and Freedom, and a man who should attempt in this day of progress to preserve Slavery amidst Freedom, might as well attempt to run a red-hot locomotive into a powder-magazine, and hope that no explosion would follow. Much fault had been found with Mr. LINCOLN, and he himself had found fault. Mr. LINCOLN had been too slow for him, for he had wanted to put a million of men in the field at the start, [applause,] and he was in favor of that now. [Born and reared in the South, his parents born in Virginia—he said now, "let the blot of Human Slavery be removed from the South forever." When free schools and free Bibles, and free labor were established in the South, then, and not until then, would we have peace in America. This rebellion would never die until Slavery died. Talk of the effect of the Proclamation? We had nothing to do with it. If this rebellion had been put down at the beginning—if the rebels had succumbed—the Union would have been restored with Slavery; but it was not in the Providence of God that it should be crushed out until Slavery was destroyed. He had said that he had found fault with Mr. LINCOLN—had not gone fast enough. He had found that Mr. LINCOLN had gone as fast as he could, and that he could not go faster than Providence. [Applause.] When he had telegraphed to Mr. LINCOLN, "Give us the Proclamation of Emancipation, the Confiscation act, and a million of men," Old ABE had telegrapehd back, "DICK, hold still under the salvation of God." [Tremendous cheers and applause.] It had been said that Mr. LINCOLN was an honest man. He was so, and no man was purer in his integrity. But he would say further than that, that for broad statesmanship ABRAHAM LINCOLN has not his equal on this continent. But how were we to have peace? Our only course, if we desired permanent peace, was to fight for it. In conclusion, he asked, if New-York did not vote down traitors at home, how could they expect the unconquered armies of the West to bear their banner against the fire; and he appealed to the voters to maintain the Government by voting for the loyal ticket now before the people.

After speeches by Hon. SCHUYLER COLFAX, of Indiana; Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW, of Pennsylvania, and Col. THOS. H. GIBBS, of Tennessee, the meeting adjourned, at 12½ o'clock.

LAUNCH OF THE DOUBLE-ENDER PEORIA.

Yesterday, at the Brooklyn Navy-yard, the twenty-second vessel of the fleet of double-enders in course of construction was launched. She is called the Peoria. Notwithstanding the number of ships recently floated off the stocks at the Brooklyn Navy-yard, there was a very large number of persons present, many of whom were ladies. The difficulty of obtaining admission to the yard, however, kept out thousands who were assembled around the gates at the foot of York-street. The launch was very successful, no accident whatever occurring, Capt. Fillebrown and Mr. Brady having rendered mishaps impossible.

The Peoria is 240 feet long, 25 feet wide and 12 feet deep, resembling the other vessels of her class, many of which have been already described in our columns. She is a broadside ship, but will have a pivot gun. Her machinery will be the same as that already described in the Mendota, Mackinaw and Shamrock. Another vessel of the same class (the Tullahoma) will be launched in a few days. She is on the stocks beside the berth from which the Peoria was launched.

IMPORTANT ORDER OF THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

The Navy Department has issued an order, of which the following is the substance: A survey having been held on the machinery and boilers of the United States steamer Fort Jackson, it appears that during the recent passage of that vessel from New-York to Fortress Monroe, one of her boilers was nearly destroyed by burning, and the lives of her officers and crew placed in imminent jeopardy, in consequence of gross neglect of duty on the part of the Engineer on watch. In conformity with the rule adopted by the Department, and with its late action in similar cases, Acting Second Assistant Engineer John L. Wilson, the officer in fault on the occasion referred to, is dismissed from the naval service.

THE PHILADELPHIA NAVY-YARD.

The Philadelphia Navy-yard presents at the present time a busy appearance. The new buildings, which are being erected on the north side of the yard, are in a fair way of being completed shortly. The men at work on the monster iron-clad Tonawanda display great activity. The gunboat Yantic will be ready for launching about the latter end of November. The gunboat Quaker City is still on the dry dock undergoing repairs. The Keystone State sailed yesterday under sealed orders.

THE REBEL RAM ATLANTA.

The rebel ram Atlanta was towed from the Philadelphia Navy-yard yesterday afternoon, and is now lying at the wharf foot of Washington-street, where she will be open to visitors. This is done for the benefit of the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, orders having been issued to that effect from the Secretary of the Navy, in compliance with requests from the committee of the saloon.

A FIVE-MILE BOAT RACE AT POUGHKEEPSIE—GIL. WARD BEATEN BY WM. STEVENS, HALF A MILE—TIME, 39 MINUTES 53 SECONDS.

A five-mile race, in shell boats, for $200 a side took place yesterday at Poughkeepsie, between Gilbert Ward, (brother of Josh,) of Newburgh, and William Stevens, of Poughkeepsie. These men had already rowed against each other, Ward winning twice, and in this match necessarily there was considerable strife. The race was postponed from Wednesday on account of the high wind and angry waters. The attendance was limited, and the betting light, Ward the favorite at the start. At 12 o'clock and 4 minutes the start was made, Ward gaining a slight advantage, by a mistroke of Stevens, which lead he maintained till he reached the upper stake boat, neither party gaining or losing up to this point. Thus far the race was as pretty and interesting as could be desired. In turning, Stevens was quicker than Ward, an advantage of great value, which shot Stevens ahead by 1 minute and 5 seconds, which lead he never lost again, winning the race and purse in 39 minutes and 53 seconds. Ward did not show any strength at all on the home-stretch, losing by nearly half a mile. His arms gave out, and the home race being against a heavy flood tide, he made no apparent efforts to keep up with Stevens. Both men were dressed in white, the only mark of distinction being Stevens' red oars. An effort was made to get on another match between the men, but Ward's friends wanted the odds of $250 to $200, the match to be rowed at Newburgh. This Stevens' backers would not agree to, their man having already been beaten twice by Ward, and as challenged party, they claimed the choice of course to be rowed over. It is not unlikely, however, that another match will soon be arranged. At the conclusion of the race, the reporters and others were entertained at dinner by Jas. McGeen, of the Liberty House, Poughkeepsie.

Arrival of Twelve Immense Ordnance Guns from Pittsburgh.

Yesterday morning there arrived in Jersey City, by the New-York and Erie Railroad, twelve large guns from Pittsburgh, entirely new. They were in charge of a Government officer. After the train arrived a large barge was lying at the Paterson Dock, and the guns were lifted from the railway trucks by derricks, specially provided for that purpose. Two of the cannon are 15 inch calibre, each weighing 26 tons, and the other ten are 10-inch, each weighing 15 tons.

It was an object of much interest to witness their transmission from the trucks to the barges, which was viewed by a large crowd. Immediately after they had all been safely placed on the barge they were taken to Governor's Island and deposited in the ordnance department there. It is conjectured that they will be distributed at the different forts along the harbor, and the two larger ones are to be sent to the great fort now erecting at Sandy Hook to guard against any invasion. This will correspond with the large guns at present placed at Fort Hamilton on the other side, and make the entrance to the harbor secure against any invading foe, either foreign or domestic.

The American Bible Union.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING—THE ANNUAL REPORTS.

The American Bible Union opened its fourteenth annual meeting, at 9 A. M. Wednesday, in the First Baptist Church, on the corner of Broome and Elizabeth streets, Rev. Dr. Armitage, President, in the chair. The attendance was large, and the proceedings interesting. From the Treasurer's report, it appeared that the year's receipts had been $17,359 22, and the expenditures $17,518 44. The report of the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. W. H. Wyckoff, was, in brief, as follows:

Last year the Four Gospels were issued from the Final Committee charged with the Revision of the New Testament.

This year the Acts of the Apostles, the Epistle to the Romans, and the two Epistles to the Corinthians, have been completed and printed, and the books are now ready for delivery.

The remaining Epistles and the Book of Revelations are expected to be finished and ready for circulation at some time during the coming year, perhaps as early as May next.

The New Testament is thus being issued in three parts. Of part 1st (the Gospels) more than fifteen thousand copies have been distributed within the past year. Parts 1 and 2 are bound together, for those who wish them in that form.

The various readings of the Greek, which have furnished the foundation for some of the most important changes, are now nearly ready for publication. They are expected to be issued in a few weeks.

The Old Testament is still under way. Many parts, such as Proverbs, the Minor Prophets, and some of the Historical Books, are in various degrees of forwardness, considerable portions ready for the press, and many chapters actually stereotyped. But no portion of the Old Testament (except that already printed) will be issued till the New Testament is completed.

Less has been done in Foreign Scriptures than in former years, as the attention of the Union has been almost wholly engrossed with the preparation and issue of the English New Testament.

A Soldier's Edition of the Gospel has been prepared, and is found to be highly acceptable with the army. It will be followed by a Soldier's Edition of the Epistles. In this Edition each book is printed separately, in a convenient form to be carried without trouble in the most hurried march, and even in time of battle.

The finances of the Union are in an improved condition. The receipts are greater than those of last year, and the prospects of the ensuing year are encouraging. Everything betokens continued prosperity.

Upon the approval of the Report, a recess was taken until 2 P. M., when the Committees for the ensuing year were appointed. During the session eloquent addresses in reference to the prosperity of the Society, and the so-called Revision movement, were made by Rev. W. G. Huntley, of Spencer, N. Y.; Rev. Dr. Raymond, of Portchester; Rev. Dr. Hodge, of Brooklyn; Rev. Mr. Craig and others, and the meeting adjourned until yesterday morning.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

Yesterday morning the large Church in Broome-street was again filled with delegates from several of the States. Dr. Conant, one of the distinguished Bible translators and member of the Revising Committee of the New Testament; Rev. T. M. Hopkins, of Geneva, of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. Dr. Brown, formerly a missionary in Burmah; Rev. Drs. Hodge, Searles and Brewer, of this State; Delano, of Ohio; Hall and Baldwin, of Pennsylvania; Gregory, of Connecticut, and other advocates of the new version were among the many noted divines assembled.

The regular proceedings opened at 10 o'clock A. M., with addresses from the Rev. Dr. Baldwin, of Philadelphia; Prof. Hopkins, of Geneva, and Dr. Armitage, the President. At 11 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Conant, of the Revising Committee, spoke on principles that had guided the translators of the new version.

The reverend expounder [illegible] by saying that he had desired the privilege of explaining this revision of the New Testament by the Committee in order to show the bearing of some of the changes adopted. The first common version dating from 1380, the days of Wickliffe was the basis of all their work, in style, manner and expression, as far as was consistent with the true sense. That style the revisers deem to be the true one for the Scriptures. Other versions fail so far as they depart from it. There is not a chapter in all the revision in which any changes could be detected as to the character of its style from the common version, yet there is scarcely a line in which there is not a change as required by faithfulness to the sense of the original. The learned Divine then proceeded to show that small as the changes purported to be they were most important. The work had been left to the Committee, and they sought to be thorough and correct. In sustaining the course his labors and those of his colleagues had taken, Dr. Conant entered into an elaborate and intricate comparison of the original text of the Scriptures in different versions, and responded with great display of learning and critical acumen to the various questions propounded by the clergy. His argument covered the whole circumference of the question, and evidently met with the warmest approval.

When Dr. Conant had concluded this portion of his extended remarks, a collection, amounting to $200, was taken up in behalf of the Missionary cause, Mrs. Vinton, a returned laborer in the Kaven Mission in Burmah, thrilling the audience with a most powerful and touching appeal in reference to the condition of the heaven in Hindostan, and more particularly the spread of the true word of God among the heathen women. She stated as the result of the unremitting toils of the good messengers of the Church who have gone to that distant missionary field that 70,000 souls had been converted to God within 30 years, yet that 800,000 more still needed the circulation of the Gospel.

Mr. Vinton's interesting remarks were listened to with profound attention, and produced a marked impression.

After the collection a recess was taken until 1 P.M.

In the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Conant continued his address, frequently questioned by the clergy present in reference to various passages in the new version of the scriptures.

When he had concluded his long and able exposition, the reports of various Committees were read and passed, among them those on obituaries colportage, &c., and an adjournment ensued until 8 P. M.

The evening session opened with prayer by Rev. J. B. Pittman, of Fishkill, and addresses were made by Rev. T. M. Hopkins, of Geneva, and Rev. Wm. H. Pendleton and U. C. Brewer, of New-York—the latter effort delighting the audience with its surpassing eloquence. Resolutions were then offered by Dr. Parmly, expressing the thanks of the delegates assembled to the Chairman, to the ladies for their hospitality, to the Press for its attentions, &c., and at 10 P. M. the Convention adjourned sine die.

The New Call for Soldiers—Action of the Loyal National League.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Loyal National League, held at their rooms in Broadway, Mr. Orison Blunt presented a report which he had been requested to prepare at the previous meeting, and of which the following is a brief synopsis:

A three years' struggle to put down an unholy rebellion, has brought the Federal Government to a point where it must receive, and that instantly, the united support of the people—support both in the shape of men and money, or it must fail.

He suggests that a great and united effort be made to aid the Government by any measures which will tend to sustain it, and show it that its blessings are appreciated by a grateful and enlightened people, and especially by the National Loyal League, composed, as it is, of loyal men, having for its motto a declared determination to support the Government, its policy and its measures, both with men and means, without regard to personal feeling or political affinities, until the unholy rebellion is crushed out.

Action! Action!! Action!!! speedy and prompt action is what is required of all, but especially of those professing the principles of the Loyal National League.

The Supervisors of the County of New-York, with the assent of the Mayor and Comptroller, on the 28th of August, passed an ordinance appropriating $2,000,000 to procure substitutes for certain classes who might be drafted, but especially for those who, being indigent, were not able to pay their exemption. Under this ordinance the Committee appointed by the Supervisors have relieved nearly 2,000 conscripts, and a substitute was provided for almost every man relieved, so that almost 2,000 willing men were raised by their action for the army, instead of that number of unwilling conscripts, and all done with an expenditure of less than $600,000. The Supervisors' Committee are closing up business, and they find that substitutes are offering themselves far beyond the needs of the Committee. And it is believed that, upon the same practical system pursued by them, the whole quota of the City of New-York under the new call for troops can be obtained within the time allowed by the President to complete the quota by volunteering.

The charm which operated, in the experience of the Supervisors' Committee, was the use of the ready money. Most of the substitutes were poor men of family, who were willing to go if their families were provided for. But the Government bounty, although large, had no charms for them, because the payment was scattered over a period of some two years, and if the man died within that time most of the bounty was lost to his family. Hence the red-tape system of Government—necessary perhaps—proves a bar to rapid enlistments. But the Supervisors' Committee so arranged that the money offered by the county should be paid at once, and the sight of the greenbacks, ready to be paid to the man or his family when mustered in, proved an irresistible argument.

Indeed, the Government itself seems to have become convinced that the system of drafting is a failure, or, rather, that the volunteering system will raise the men needed, from the very fact that so much time is allowed the States to make up their quota by volunteering.

Under the new call for 300,000 men, the quota of New-York State is 60,378. Add deficit of 47,657 under the present draft, and New-York State has to provide by the 5th of January next, 108,085 men. Of this number, between 20,000 and 30,000 is likely to be the quota of the City of New-York.

That the quota of the City of New-York can be raised before the 5th of January—the time allowed by the President—there is no doubt. So convinced of this are the Supervisors, that they have already appropriated $2,000,000 to that end, and propose to raise the men under the same system, which has worked so admirably in providing substitutes for conscripts under the present draft.

The Supervisors should receive the support of every loyal citizen, but more especially should the Loyal National League come to their aid. Let the League, then, at once open a public subscription; let every man subscribe what he can afford; let the fund be offered as a Loyal National League bounty in addition to all other bounties offered, and if it be but $5 per man, it will at least practically demonstrate that the Loyal National League is an association whose principles mean something more than words.

To make effective the plan of action proposed by Mr. Blunt, offered the following:

Resolved—1. That this Executive Committee be constituted a Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of soliciting and raising subscriptions, to be called "The Loyal National League Bounty Subscription Fund."

2. That a committee of three be appointed by this Executive Committee, who shall be a Finance Committee, and who shall have charge of the funds thus raised, of whom one shall be the Chairman, another the Secretary, and the third the Treasurer.

3. Such Sub-Committee is hereby authorized and empowered to apportion the moneys so raised, as a fund for bounty to be paid to volunteers for substitutes for volunteers, under the last call of the President, and to distribute the same in such manner as to them shall seem just and proper.

4. That —— copies of this report be printed under the direction of the Finance Committee provided for herein, and that a copy of the same be sent to every Loyal League in this State, with a recommendation that the action taken by the League in this County, be followed elsewhere.

A Daring Robbery in Broadway.

THE POLICE ASSAILED BY THIEVES AND ROWDIES.

Late on Wednesday night Mr. Michael White, of Carbondale, Lucerne County, Penn., temporarily stopping at Sweeney's Hotel, was assailed in the vicinity of the Apollo Rooms in Broadway, and a valuable gold watch and chain taken from him. The robbers are named Richard Conway and Francis McCoy. The theft was effected by one of them seizing White, and holding him as quietly as possible while the other caught the guard chain which was hanging on his vest, tore it from its fastening, and with that and the watch attempted to make his escape. Officer Kaveny, of the Sixth Precinct, was, however, at hand, and White pointed out McCoy and Conway as the thieves. This was a signal for an onslaught on the Policeman. By means of a well-known signal, several other members of the gang were speedily brought to the scene, and Kaveny being overpowered by numbers, was compelled to send for reinforcements. Fifteen or twenty Metropolitans were soon on the ground, the thieves were overcome, and McCoy and Conway were taken into custody. Yesterday Justice Connolly committed them both to the Tombs. The watch was not recovered.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Monster Serenade to Gen. Sickles This Evening.—The gentlemen who proposed the dinner to Maj.-Gen. Sickles, mention of which was made yesterday, finding he is in town, and determind, in default of acceptnig a dinner, that he shall receive a serenade, give him one this evening at 9 o'clock, at the Brevoort House. It will be a monster affair, Dodworth's full and splendid band "doing the music," and in such style as has not been rivaled even by Julien; in short, it will be the most imposing musical demonstration ever given in New-York. As the firemen composed a large proportion of the Excelsior Brigade, and as Chief Decker is among those giving the serenade, we presume the Department will make this the occasion for an ovation from them also, to one whom they so well know and esteem. The affair may be called impromptu, as but late yesterday was it known that the General was in town. There will be an immense audience undoubtedly, of whom the fair will form a large proportion, in equipages or among the welcoming throng.

By the way, the following pregnant sentences in Gen. Sickles' letter, declining the proposed dinner, are worth reproduction in this connection, for they are music for the loyal:

"Permit me to avail myself of the occasion to appeal to my fellow-citizens everywhere to reject the leadership of those who are obliged to defend their patriotism. While the war lasts let us sustain the Government with the mind, and heart, and muscle of the whole country. Reserving all incidental questions for the future, and discarding all other political objects, let the people at home coöperate with the army in restoring peace, by destroying the power of our enemies."

A Man Drowned—Mysterious Case.—At about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, Officer Williams heard cries for help proceeding from the pier at the foot of Market-street. He hastened thither, and at once discovered a man struggling in the water. The officer rapped for aid, and meantime did all he could to rescue the victim, but without success; he sank after a few minutes, and his body has not been recovered. When the officer first came within sight of him, the latter said that he was from some place in New-Jersey, and that he had been thrown into the water by two men. This was all the officer could understand, and there was no time to learn even the unfortunate man's name. Efforts are being made to recover the body, with a view to unravel the mystery which at present surrounds the case.

The Funeral of Capt. Squires.—The funeral of Police Capt. Squires, of the Second Precinct, was attended yesterday by about 600 Policemen and a large number of friends. Dr. Smith's Church, in Broome-street, where the obsequies took place, was crowded to its utmost capacity. The services were performed by the pastor, Rev. J. Rolston Smith, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hovey. Capt. Squires had, for several years past, been a member of Dr. Smith's Church. He was well known throughout the congregation and the neighborhood in which he lived, and was deeply loved by his friends and highly respected by all who knew him. The body was conveyed to Greenwood for interment.

Ophthalmic Hospital.—Dr. Stephenson will give his first lecture to medical pupils on "Diseases of the Eye," which will be free, at the Eye Hospital, corner Fourth-avenue and Twenty-eighth-street, on Saturday, at 4 o'clock P. M. It is open to the poor every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, from 1 to 3 P. M. This is a valuable school for medical students.

The Central Park Music.—The Commissioners of the Central Park announce that the musical entertainments which have been given weekly on the Park during the past season, are discontinued in consequence of the cool weather.

Sale of Oil Paintings.—A celebrated gallery of oil paintings will be sold by Messrs. Leeds & Co., to-day, sale commencing at 11 o'clock.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

The Local Militia.—Yesterday there was an inspection and review of the Thirteenth and Twenty-eighth regiments, infantry, and the Seventieth regiment, cavalry and artillery, by Brig.-Gen. Crooke and Staff. The Seventieth, Col. Cropsy, formed at the State Arsenal in Portland-avenue, and after parading about a number of the streets of East Brooklyn, formed in line on Cumberland-street, opposite Fort Greene Park. The Lancers came first, the cavalry next and the artillery brought up the rear. They presented a fine appearance. After inspection they marched into the Park and were exercised in a number of field movements, after which they were dismissed. The Twenty-eighth regiment also mustered at the Arsenal where they passed inspection, and after parading through several streets broke ranks. The cavalry mustered about 250 men, and the infantry about the same. The Thirteenth regiment was inspected at the City Armory, and made no parade.

Judiciary Nomination.—The Independent Democrats, supporters of Mayor Kalbfleisch, have nominated Col. C. J. Jack for County Judge, in place of Judge Garrison, who declined the nomination. Col. Jack is a Republican, but "regarding this as a movement of the people in opposition to the corrupt primary system which governs the two political parties," has accepted the nomination. The Independent ticket is now complete.

The United States Revenue Tax.—The total amount of assessments by the United States Assessor of the Third Congressional District, Brooklyn, is $480,773 68, of which the income tax alone is $438,983 68. The assessments remaining unpaid should be promptly handed over so as to be included in the annual Congressional statement.

The Draft.—The Provost-Marshal of the Third Congressional District, Brooklyn, notifies those persons who have been drafted and not reported at his headquarters, that if they do not report before the 31st inst., they will be deemed as deserters and treated accordingly.

Union Meeting.—Gov. Yates, of Illinois, and Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Illinois, will address the Union meeting at Gothic Hall this evening.

A Release of Principal Debtor Held to Release Sureties also.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice Bosworth.

The Butchers' and Drovers' Bank vs. Edward Roberts et al.—This action, noticed in the Times of the 27th, terminated yesterday in favor of the defendants. The suit was against the maker and indorser of a note given to the Bank, dated April 9, 1861, for $7,000 and interest. It appears that the Bank held three notes against John B. Corlies, amounting to $7,000, upon which Edward Roberts was accommodation indorser, one of which was due. Prior to the above date Corlies failed, but thereafter gave to Edward Roberts a second mortgage on a house in Thirty-fourth-street, to secure him against his indorsement. Negotiations were opened between the Bank and Roberts, which resulted in an agreement carried out the 9th of April, 1861, by which Edward Roberts waived notice of protest on the notes not due, and gave to the Bank the note in suit payable on demand, and assigned to the Bank the mortgage he had received from Corlies. The Bank retained in its possession the three notes originally given by Corlies; Edward Roberts had made a payment of interest on account of the $7,000. The second mortgage was cut off by the foreclosure of the prior mortgage. The Bank commenced this suit on the $7,000 note, but afterward and about the 7th of April, 1863, gave Mr. Corlies a general release. Thereupon, Roberts claimed that the Bank having released the principal debtor the sureties were also released. The Court, after hearing testimony of the facts and circumstances connected with the giving of the note in suit and the assignment of the mortgage and the retention by the Bank of the three original notes, decided that the Bank had not thereby lost their right of action against Corlies, that he remained the principal debtor until the release of the 7th of April, 1863 was given, which cut off the right of action on the original note against Corlies, and barred any future claim on the note in suit, and released the maker and indorser. Plaintiff's complaint was therefore dismissed.

For plaintiffs, Slossen & Fellows and W. Fullerton; for defendants, J. S. L. Cummins and A. J. Vanderpoel.

Suit Against the Sheriff.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice White.

Edward Andig vs. James Lynch, Sheriff, &c.—This was an action to replevin a quantity of groceries levied upon under an execution against Meyering & Benely. The principal question litigated was as to the preparation and annexation of the schedules to an assignment which was executed a few hours before the levy. The case occupied the attention of the Court for two days, and the jury yesterday morning rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, assessing the value of the property at the amount agreed upon between the parties.

For plaintiff, Cheeney and Hull; for defendant, W. G. Brown and A. J. Vanderpoel.

United States Circuit Court—Oct. 29.

Before Judge Nelson.

The United States vs. The Bark Hiawatha, &c.—In this case a final decree of distribution was this morning signed by the Judge. The decree directs the proceeds of sale, reported at $269,319, to be distributed, after deducting the cost and expenses, which are stated at $29,615 56. The vessels which participate in it are the Minnesota, the Cumberland, the Perry, the Keystone State and the Monticello.

Thursday, Oct. 29—P. M.

The price of Gold advanced this forenoon to 148@148½ ℘ cent., and Bills on London to 161½@162½ ℘ cent., but the rise was not sustained later in the day, and sales of Gold were made at the Second Board at 147 ℘ cent. Subsequently on the Street the price fell to 146½ ℘ cent.

Money was in sharp demand among the the Brokers, to-day, at 7 ℘ cent. up to 2 o'clock. Private lenders are disposed to avail of this rate to the full extent of their balances, but at Bank, owing to the reduced sum total of Legal Tender now held by the Association, the disposition to lend, at call, is not so free.

At the Treasury there is a further accumulation of Legal Tender, owing to the heavy conversions into the Popular Loan, which, for some days past, run ahead of the disbursements of the Government. To-day some of the Insurance corporations converted their 5 ℘ cent. Certificates of Deposit on the Treasury into the Popular Loan. The direct subscriptions at the office to-day amount to $1,696,650, and the receipts on the same account from the Loan Agent and Sub-Agents amount to $1,747,900; making together $3,444,550, the heaviest receipts in a single day yet recorded. The receipts in Gold for Customs were $353,000. The total receipts were $5,347,745; payments, $3,928,208; balance, $36,089,921.

The subscriptions to the Popular Loan at the close of the present month and week have been materially accelerated by the consideration of obtaining the Bonds of even date, Nov. 1. Both the sales and subscriptions by the Sub-Agents in this City have felt this influence. Messrs. Livermore, Clews & Co., Sub-Agents, write to us this afternoon that their sales of Bonds on hand to-day, and their orders upon the principal Loan Agent, amount in the aggregate to $2,507,150.

The statements of the Banks of the three principal cities of the Union for the last week compare with the previous one, and the corresponding time of 1862, as follows:

The Railway market, after the vigorous rise of yesterday, is less animated to-day, and buyers are influenced to some extent, no doubt, by the active inquiry for Money at 7 ℘ cent., the end of which may not come soon enough to make operations at present figures profitable. On the other hand the same cause or influence leads to very considerable short sales, and on the whole the market, as compared with yesterday, is down on nearly all descriptions. Among the miscellaneous Shares Delaware and Hudson, Pennsylvania Coal, Pacific Mail, and American Coal are higher, and Quicksilver Company lower. The last-named sold down this afternoon after the printed list to 63¾@64 ℔ cent. as against 69¾@70 last night. The Government Stocks continue firm; the Border State 6 ℔ cents. dull.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

A telegram from Chattanooga, dated Wednesday last, conveys the important intelligence that the enemy's position on Lookout Mountain has been flanked and their evacuation is a necessity. The honor of the achievement is credited to a detachment of the Eleventh Ohio regiment, under Col. Stanley, who floated fifty pontoons down the Tennessee River in face of the rebel sharpshooters, landed at Brown's Ferry and drove the enemy from the ridge on the south side, thus opening communication with Bridgeport. A later dispatch says that 2,000 of Gen. Palmer's division, under Gen. Hazen, had succeeded in driving the enemy from Lookout Mountain. Our special correspondent at Chattanooga says, in a dispatch dated Wednesday, that the intelligence respecting Bragg's movement to get between Burnside and Chattanooga, though generally believed, is not altogether reliable.

Gen. Meade has, in some respects, changed the position of his forces within a day or two, in order to protect the workmen engaged in reconstructing the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. While this movement was in progress on Wednesday morning, a demonstration was made by the enemy against the Sixth corps, but nothing was accomplished by them beyond driving the pickets a short distance. Refugees and prisoners positively assert that Lee has dispatched a large force to Lynchburgh, Va., to cooperate with Bragg against Burnside.

A Charleston dispatch to the Richmond Enquirer says that firing was resumed by Gen. Gillmore and Admiral Dahlgren on Tuesday last against Forts Sumter and Johnston. We opened with seven guns from Gregg and four from Wagner, and two monitors also participated in the engagement. The rebels replied with vigor from Moultrie, and at dusk the cannonading ceased. Our batteries threw 100 shots, and the monitors expended 160 in the affair. The rebels say that we did no damage to them.

FROM EUROPE.

The arrival yesterday of the steamships Germania and City of Washington off Cape Race, gives five days' later advices from Europe. The most interesting item of news refers to the rebel pirates and Federal cruisers at the Cape of Good Hope. The United States steamer Vanderbilt had safely arrived at that point in pursuit of the Alabama, and was repairing at St. Simon's Bay. Her presence seems to have been known to Capt. Semmes, who will avoid an engagement if possible. He is of opinion that she is much faster than the Alabama, and if it happens that his vessel is blockaded, he will endeavor to slip out unobserved as he did when watched last year by the San Jacinto at Martinique. Henry Ward Beecher had addressed an immense audience at Exeter Hall on American affairs. Great Britain, after all the recent glorification of her iron-clad channel fleet, does not seem to be satisfied that they are quite the thing, and the Admiralty Board has determined to build a new squadron of gunboats, armor-plated, to carry two Armstrong guns. England and Austria, according to the Paris Pays, are still in consultation respecting an identical note on the Polish question, and France will abide by every act necessary to meet the demands of public opinion in Europe. The Russian troops in Poland had been reinforced, and the Black Sea flotilla was to be fully equipped. Denmark was massing a large body of troops on the Schleswig Southern frontier. The stipulations of a treaty of alliance between Sweden and Denmark had been agreed upon, but would not be ratified until the German troops advanced into Holstein. The Ionian Islands were to be annexed to Greece immediately upon the dissolution of the Senate. The Liverpool Cotton market was excited on the 21st, and prices had advanced ½d.@1d. ℔ lb. Breadstuffs and Provisions remained steady. Consols closed at 93⅜ for money, and 93⅜@93½ for account.

Advices from Japan state that Admiral Kuper's fleet had arrived at Kagosema, and failing to obtain the satisfaction by negotiation, the Admiral had bombarded the city, and converted it into a mass of ruins. He also burned Prince Satima's three steamers before returning to Yokohama.

GENERAL NEWS.

The sales of the Popular Loan of the United States in this market yesterday amounted to three and a half millions, the largest single day's business yet reported. The market for Money was active at 7 ℔ cent. The Railway Stocks closed lower than on Wednesday. Gold opened higher in the forenoon, but fell back later in the day to 146⅛@146¼ ℔ cent.

The Board of Aldermen met yesterday. A resolution was adopted to donate $3,000 to the Children's Aid Society. The resolution from the Councilmen to increase the pay of the laborers in all the Departments to $2 per day was laid over, on the suggestion of Mr. Boole, to have an ordinance drafted to effect the object, which cannot be done legally by a simple resolution. The Board adjourned till 1 P. M. to-day. The Councilmen failed of a quorum, and adjourned to Monday at 4 o'clock.

The "broad arrow," which the English papers tell us was affixed to the rebel rams, simply indicates possession by Her Majesty. It is a Government mark, somewhat in the shape of an arrow head, which is stamped, cut, or otherwise fixed on all solid materials used in Her Majesty's ships or dock-yards, in order to prevent embezzlement of royal naval stores. The mark was assumed at the time of the Edwards, (when the arrow was considered the most powerful weapon of attack,) as distinguishing the property of the King. To be found in possession of any property thus marked, is a criminal offence, punishable with a heavy fine.

According to the English army returns for the year 1861, 19,191 recruits were examined at the headquarters of the recruiting districts, and 4,600 of them were pronounced unfit for service.

The Russian naval officers have been invited to visit Portland. The fleet will proceed to that port after the visit to Boston, should no orders preventing it be received from home.

The Washington Evening Star says it is certainly known that our prisoners in Richmond were never so badly treated as at present. They are being starved by the rebel authorities, and more or less of them are actually dying from exposure to the cold in their nakedness. The excuse for this treatment is that the rebel Government does all it can for them; their troops in the field faring nearly as badly. The War Department is straining every nerve to relieve these unfortunate men, though it is feared that much intended for them will, on arriving within the rebel lines, be diverted to other purposes.

Gov. Buckingham has called an extra session of the Legislature, for the purpose of adopting some measures to raise the volunteers asked for from Connecticut under the recent call of the President. Nov. 3 is the day fixed for the meeting of the Legislature.

One of the officers of the ship Annie F. Schmidt, captured by the pirate Alabama, writes home that several of the officers of the Alabama declared that the bark Sea Bride, of Boston, captured off Table Bay, was not a lawful prize, she being within three miles of the shore, and Semmes himself seemed to doubt the legality of his capture, although the sailing-master told him she was 3½ miles from land. He further states that two of the Alabama's crew belonged in Maine, viz.: Albert Gilman, of Biddeford, and Samuel Wallace, of Eastport. They deserted at Cape Town, as did about a dozen others.

Breadstuffs opened briskly yesterday at slightly advanced prices, but closed tamely, in response to the fluctuations in Gold. Provisions were in more demand, especially Pork, which sold freely, in part for future delivery, at higher rates. Rio Coffee and Black Teas were in fair request. Cotton was less active and less buoyant. Hay, Hemp, Hops, Salt, Cassia, Laths, Lumber and Tallow were in good demand. Whisky was doing better. Sugars, Molasses, Oils, Rice, Seeds, Metals, Tobacco and Naval Stores were quiet. The freight market was decidedly firmer, with less shiproom available, and more produce offering.

The Democrats and the Copperheads.

It is said, on apparently good authority, that at least seventy thousand Democrats in Pennsylvania voted for Gov. Curtin at the recent election. In Ohio the number of Democrats who gave their suffrages to John Brough was still larger in proportion. Gov. Curtin was a Republican in his antecedents, John Brough a Democrat; but this difference was not thought of in the two canvasses. It was enough that they were both staunch friends of the war, and the regular Union candidates.

The great question here in New-York is—How many of the old Democrats will support the Union ticket? Will there be the same measure of independence of party exhibited here by them as has been so decisively shown in the other two great States? If so, Copperheadism will get an unheard-of smiting in New-York next Tuesday.

New-York gave Mr. Lincoln, at the Presidential election, a majority of about forty thousand. But an insignificant fraction of those who then voted for him—we believe not one thousand all told—are now found among the opponents of the Administration. Large numbers of them, it is true, have been drawn off to the war, and are practically disfranchised for the time; but the Democrats have lost by the same means in nearly equal proportion. Therefore, an immense Union majority is assured, if there is anything like the same accession to the Union party from the Democratic ranks as has been realized in the other States.

Why should there not be such accessions? Neither in Pennsylvania nor in Ohio have so many prominent leaders of the old Democratic party gone over to the support of the Administration. It would be impossible to name men who, three years ago, had the confidence of the Democratic party of this State to a greater extent than Dickinson, and Dix, and Brady, and Van Buren, and Porter, and Tremain, and Cochrane, and Sickles; and yet these all, as well as many others of perhaps less note, are now found among the staunchest adherents of the Administration. If the old chiefs of the party have thus thrown off their old party trammels, why should not the same influences operate upon the rank and file? If in the other States the rank and file have so largely rallied to the support of the old flag, with comparatively little encouragement upon the part of the old leaders, why should there be any greater holding back here where that encouragement is so very decided?

Besides, the New-York Democracy has a peculiar stimulus in this direction, which did not exist in the other States. We mean the mischief and shame of a Copperhead Administration. Gov. Seymour has here practically demonstrated in the eyes of all the people the evil of opposition to the Government in a great national emergency like the present. He has written them out in letters of flame and blood that have horrified every right-minded man from one extremity of the State to the other. The disgrace of it does not attach to him simply; it is necessarily shared also by the Democratic party which put him in power, and which he still professes to represent. The party in Pennsylvania and Ohio, not having been in power, has been subjected to no such brand of faithlessness. Honest Democrats there had comparatively nothing to resent. They occupied much the same position in respect to their candidates that honest Democrats did the last year, when they trusted to the fair promises of Horatio Seymour in reference to the future, without any practical experience of him to make it manifest that he would not make good these promises. We say that with the practical experiences of the past year, the Democrats of this State have a vastly stronger reason to break away from their party than their brethren had in the other States. We are confident that this reason will operate, and that tens of thousands who honestly gave their votes to Horatio Seymour last year, in the belief that he would in good faith do all in his power to promote the vigorous and successful prosecution of the war, will now, with the spirit that becomes undeceived men, repudiate him and his works.

Many well-meaning Democrats cling to the Copperheads, in the vain imagination that they are thus keeping true to their old party organization, and that they are opposing the Republican party of other days. Nothing could be more erroneous. Neither of the old parties exist. The events of the last two years have completely destroyed their identity—and what is more, have completely destroyed the very objects of their former being. The Charleston platform and the Chicago platform are both as totally obsolete, as utterly irrelevant to the present order of things as the Twelve Tables of Rome. The most salient distinction between the two was that the one established Slavery in the territories, while the other prevented Slavery in the territories; and yet there is no man now so mad as to imagine that the time can possibly ever return when that will be a practical question. Slavery, not only in the territories, but everywhere else, has had its day. The war, by its own inevitable operations, has destroyed it beyond all possibility of recovery. And in like manner the war has broken up all the old issues upon which the parties lived and struggled. It has brought an absolutely new order of things; and one which forces all considerate men, whether they like it or not, into new positions. The sole question now is, whether the Government, which is struggling against a rebellion which seeks its life, shall be supported, or not? Those who are for supporting it have, in consistency, no alternative but to support the war, and the constituted authorities which conduct the war. All support which falls short of this, however rightly inclined, is no support at all. Just as a prop, which falls short an inch, however correct its leaning, is no prop at all. There are various degrees of defection; but any defection whatever, in a crisis like this, is a crime. The man who does not come square, plump, up to the maintenance of the war, by which alone the country can be saved, however patriotic he may be in spirit, is no patriot in fact; and however Democratic in sentiment he may have once been, now assumes the name of Democrat but to disgrace it. Truer words were never uttered than by that great Democratic leader, Stephen A. Douglas:

> "Patriotism emanates from the heart, fills the soul, infuses itself into the whole man, and speaks and acts the same language. A friend of his country in war will feel, speak and act for his country, revere his country's cause, and hate his country's enemies. America wants no friend, acknowledges the fidelity of no citizen, who, after war is declared, condemns the justice of her cause, and sympathizes with the enemy. All such are traitors in their hearts."

The Union of Forces—Our Opportunity in Virginia.

The admirable stroke by which the four independent armies of the West, (Burnside's, Rosecrans', Hooker's and Grant's,) operating on different lines, and toward different aims, have been consolidated into one, should be immediately imitated in the case of our forces in Virginia. We have now in that State two independent armies—the Army of the Potomac, under Gen. Meade, and the "Army of Virginia," under Gen. Foster, with its headquarters at Fortress Monroe—both of which have Richmond as their objective, and yet each, seemingly, too weak to accomplish the desired work. Can any man tell the wisdom of thus keeping these two forces divided in fruitless inaction? The army on the Peninsula is too strong merely to garrison Fortress Monroe, and yet too weak to attempt an advance to Richmond. The Army of the Potomac also is thought to be insufficient for this end, and yet it is certainly unnecessarily strong for the mere fainéant duty of "covering Washington." With the consolidation of these two forces, a serious effort might be made on the one or the other line—by the Peninsula or the overland route—to capture the rebel capital.

There never has been a time in the whole course of the war, when it was more imperative that a serious effort in this direction should be made. The importance of this springs not from the mere consideration of Richmond, but from the intimate relations which operations in Virginia at present bear to the fortunes of the war in Tennessee. There is hardly a doubt that the rebels rulers, relying on the embarrassment which the destruction of the railroad leading to the Rapidan will cause military operations, and on the depletion of the Army of the Potomac, are now preparing, by the farther transfer of troops from the east to the west, and the accumulation of a formidable force in front of Chattanooga, to attempt the carrying out of Jeff. Davis' promise to drive the Union army out of Tennessee.

The best possible method of checkmating this design is by a powerful diversion in Virginia in a vigorous campaign Richmondwards. We believe the audacious and energetic demonstrations which the rebels are now making north of the Rappahannock, on our front and flanks, are made with the one view of keeping the Army of the Potomac "bound in to saucy doubts and fears." It will be pusillanimous if we allow ourselves to be deceived by these hollow masks. There never was so favorable an opportunity as this for an advance on the rebel capital. In our attempts, thus far, we have always been met by equal, if not by superior numbers; but we do not believe there are to-day forty thousand rebels between Meade and Richmond. Let us therefore unite our scattered forces and have a vigorous Fall campaign. The highest military considerations demand it. "On to Richmond," has not always been a wise watchword, but it is eminently so at the present time.

A Good Example.

From the Tribune.

"Hon. Benj. F. Manierre has declined the Independent Union nomination for Senator from the Sixth District, leaving William Laimbeer, Jr., the only anti-Copperhead candidate. Mr. Manierre once represented that District in the Senate, and served with eminent fidelity and efficiency. At the last election he was the leading Union candidate, though his rival had the great advantage of being accounted the regular nominee. Yet we believe he has now acted wisely as well as patriotically in withdrawing and doing all he can to elect Mr. Laimbeer, whose popularity is decided, and success, we trust, is no longer doubtful."

ONE NOT SO GOOD.

"The friends of Mr. Callicot in the Fifth Assembly District of Kings County (Ninth, Eleventh and Twentieth Wards of Brooklyn) hold a meeting at the Cumberland-street Church (near Lafayette-avenue) this evening to ratify his nomination. We hope those citizens of the District who think Mr. C. deserves to be re-elected to attend. If the people want Mr. Callicot to represent them, they have a right to their choice."

Mr. Callicot is running as an independent candidate against the regular Union nominee, Mr. Perry. "The people" have undoubtedly "a right" to elect him if they choose; but the fact that their delegates in Convention did not select him as their candidate, would seem to imply that they preferred Mr. Perry. We have never heard from the Tribune, or anybody else, that there was any complaint or suspicion of unfairness in the nomination of Mr. Perry, or of the slightest unfitness, personal or political, on his part for the place. Would it not be quite as well, then—quite as likely to secure a serviceable and desirable result—to allow the people to choose directly between the Union candidate and the Copperhead candidate, as to distract their choice by running an independent nominee? Would not Mr. Callicot act quite as "wisely and patriotically by withdrawing," as Mr. Manierre has done? Or has he so far returned to the political preferences and associations which secured his election last year, as to prefer the election of a Democrat over any Union man but himself?

Final Decree in the Case of the Hiawatha.

We notice that a final decree was entered yesterday in the case of the prize ship Hiawatha and her cargo, in the United States Circuit Court. The case has been noticeable as being one of the first, if not the first, of the prize cases which came before the District Court at the breaking out of the rebellion. At that time great doubt prevailed as to the principles which the Courts would lay down in reference to the law of prize as applicable to the state of things then existing. Eminent counsel were engaged on behalf of the vessel, and professed themselves not a little disappointed when Judge Betts decided the case in accordance with the principles which have since become the settled law. An appeal was taken by the Circuit Court, and then to the Supreme Court at Washington, where the decree was affirmed, and now, in less than two years and a half from the commencement of the case, the final decree is entered in the cause. It would be a great public benefit if a final decision could be reached in as short a time in the Courts of this State.

Another matter, which has given interest to the case of the Hiawatha, was the mysterious disappearance of part of her cargo, which, as our readers will recollect, was spirited off to Liverpool before the rest of it was sold. We do not see that the final decree makes any reference to that matter. We recollect that an order to show cause was made in the matter by Judge Nelson more than a year ago, but we do not recollect ever to have seen that any cause was shown, or any further proceedings taken in the matter.

We are glad to see that our sailors are to have so large an amount distributed among them as arises out of this one case. But we shall not forget—and we surmise they will not—that the amount should have been some $12,000 to $15,000 larger than it is. We trust that the entry of this final decree does not signify that this amount is to be given up without any effort for its recovery.

Strong Meat for Democratic Babes.—While Gov. Seymour, Supervisor Purdy and the World are busy trying to raise a war-cry as the rallying summons for the Democratic party at the coming election, we commend to their notice the utterances of some of their candidates on this subject. We have a report of a Democratic meeting held at Chester, Orange County, a few days since, over which Hon. D. B. St. John presided. He is the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, and must be presumed to know something of the principles and sentiments which the election of himself and his associates is expected to establish. He made some opening remarks, in which he stated that he opposed the Administration because he did not consider it competent to govern the country. A long series of resolutions was adopted, from which we select the following:

> Resolved, That Abolitionism is the mother of Secession, and the responsible cause of our present difficulties.
> Resolved, That war is disunion, and a remedy unknown to the Constitution when applied to States.
> Resolved, That in our judgment the Union will not be restored by waging war against the seceding States. That the policy which burns cities, devastates hundreds of miles of territory, destroys the lives of hundreds of thousands of our fellow-citizens, and fills the land with widows and orphans, is not a policy which is commended to us by the voice of wisdom or the instincts of humanity. That "brute force" is not calculated to win back the Confederate States.
> Resolved, That the only rebellion spoken of and provided for in the Constitution of the United States, is one occurring in the limits of a State, and the authority of the President and Congress to put down such rebellion by force, is dependent upon the demand of the Legislature of such State, or of the Governor when the Legislature is not in session, and that the mode and manner of putting down or disposing of all other rebellions belong to the people in their sovereign capacity.
> Resolved, That in support of the above principles, we will give a united support to the nominees of the Democracy of New-York, made in Convention at Albany, on the 9th day of September.

This is reasonably explicit. It comes up to the Democratic standard as established by the new Gospel of Peace. We trust Gov. Seymour and Tammany, and the War Democrats generally, will put it in their pipes and smoke it. Going for the war in one breath, and passing such resolutions as these in the next, must come up to the Governor's idea of going for War and Conciliation at the same time.

Blair's Bitters.—Some of the papers are making a great deal of noise about the amount of liquor drank, or at least ordered, by Maj.-Gen. Blair, while he was in command of a division in the rear of Vicksburgh. Now, we don't see any sense in this. In the first place, the packages of brandy and bitters for which Blair's order has been found, never reached that officer. In the second place, if they had reached him, the quantity ordered was moderate; for the horrible water that our troops had in the Summer months while in the rear of Vicksburgh, was unusable unless there was "something mixed with it." When some one charged Gen. Grant, in the President's hearing, with drinking too much liquor, Mr. Lincoln, recalling Gen. Grant's successes, said that if he could find out what brand of whisky Grant drank, he would send a barrel of it to all the other commanders. In like manner, Gen. Blair's liquor, or orders for it, seem never to have affected his efficiency at the head of his gallant and victorious division.

Removal of Generals.—A cotemporary says that "the rebels never change the commanders of their armies," and contrasts, in this respect, their policy with ours. This is a great error. Their main army in Virginia has had three commanders—Beauregard, Johnston and Lee. Their army on the Mississippi, which was finally driven into Vicksburgh and captured, had repeated changes of commanders; and the same was the case with nearly all their minor armies. Their Tennessee or Central army has remained under Bragg for a long time; but if we had retained a General in command who had retreated as often, lost as much territory and suffered as many defeats, we should have had no end of denunciation of our military authorities.

Mexico.—Señor Romero was yesterday received by the President as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Mexican Republic; and he made a very neat speech on the occasion, to which Mr. Lincoln neatly responded. Señor Romero said that "the Government and people of Mexico entertain the greatest friendship and consideration for the Government and people of the United States of America, and fervently desire the prosperity, aggrandizement and welfare of the country;" and to this the President replied that the Envoy knew "how sincerely and how profoundly the United States desired that Mexico might always enjoy the blessings of domestic and foreign peace with perfect security, prosperity, independence and freedom." Such sentiments of mutual esteem between the representatives of the two North American Republics are gratifying.

Grant at Chattanooga.—Gen. Grant's troops at Chattanooga have gained a very important success in the capture of Lookout Mountain—and another not less important in the opening of communications with Bridgeport. The rebel position on Lookout Mountain commanded the town of Chattanooga, though not our lines, but the rebels were able to menace and annoy us from it. The fact that they are driven away adds strength to Gen. Thomas' position. Gen. Grant begins work in his new Department neatly and successfully, and we have no doubt he will yet end it grandly.

The Brooklyn Mayoralty.—Three candidates are in the field—Benjamin Prince for the Copperheads, Col. A. M. Wood for the Unionists, and Martin Kalbfleisch, Independent. All these are of Democratic antecedents; but the Republicans unite with a large number of War Democrats in giving Col. Wood their enthusiastic support. Between them, we trust it will be found that there is staunch patriotism enough in Brooklyn to elect him. It will be an anomaly if a city which has derived so much lustre from the gallant conduct of its soldiers in this war, should prefer an unmitigated Copperhead to be its executive officer over the leader of its own famous Fourteenth. Col. Wood is, to say the least, every whit the equal of his chief competitor in ability and personal character, while he as much excels him in patriotic sentiment and service as one Northern man can excel another.

Amusements.

Alhambra Circus.—This evening is devoted to the benefit of the urbane and gentlemanly assistant manager Mr. Lafayette Nixon, on which occasion, in addition to the ordinary great and numerous attractions of the Circus—including the wonderful Bedouin Arabs, Mme. Marie Macarte, Eaton Stone, James Cook, &c.—a host of volunteers will appear for this night only, foremost among whom are Mme. Louise Tournaire, the renowned French equestrienne, in her great manege act; Mr. William Kennedy, the American jester, &c. Another startling novelty will be the debut of "The Ghost on Horseback." We have had "Ghosts" in all shapes but never previously a spectral illusion on a living horse.

Winter Garden.—Benefit of Mr. Clarke. This evening this most popular and mirth-provoking artist takes his farewell and only benefit this season at this house. He offers a bill of unusual attraction, appearing in five of his best comic characters, and those who visit him may calculate on an evening of "laughter and delight."

Reception of the Mexican Minister.

THE MEXICAN MINISTER PRESENTS HIS CREDENTIALS.

Señor Don Matias Romero was to-day presented to the President by the Secretary of State as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Mexican Republic. On delivering his credentials he made the remarks of which the following is a translation:

"I have the honor to place in your Excellency's hands the letters of the Constitutional President of the United Mexican States, which accredit me as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Mexico near your Excellency's Government. Two neighboring and friendly Governments, which divide between them the richest portion of this continent, and which are ruled by identical institutions, can no less have identical interests, which will be augmented and strengthened in a great degree by drawing more closely together the friendly relations which happily exist between them, and by developing the commercial interests through which both, in the result, will be mutually benefited. The Government and people of Mexico profess the greatest friendship and consideration for the Government and people of the United States of America, and fervently desire the prosperity, aggrandizement and welfare of this country. On me has fallen the honor to come here to express these sentiments of good-will; and in the discharge of my official duties my greatest efforts will be directed to the accomplishment of the desires of my Government, which are also mine, to maintain and strengthen the bonds of friendship which connect Mexico with the United States, and to promote the development of the commercial interests which will more closely draw together the ties by which the two nations are already united. I do not doubt that, in the discharge of the mission which has been confided to me, I shall meet with the cooperation of the Government of your Excellency; and it will be very satisfactory to me to succeed in deserving your approbation."

To which the President replied as follows:

"Mr. Romero: You have hitherto resided with us, and for a considerable period have been the chief diplomatic representative of your country at this Capital. You know how sincerely and how profoundly during that residence the United States desired that Mexico might always enjoy the blessings of domestic and foreign peace with perfect security, prosperity, independence and freedom. You know also that during the previous residence to which I have referred, you enjoyed the respect and esteem of this Government and the good will of the people of the United States. I have the pleasure of assuring you that in all things, as well affecting your country as yourself personally, these feelings remain unchanged. Thanking you for the liberal sentiments you have expressed for the United States, and congratulating you upon the renewed confidence which your Government has reposed in you, it is with unaffected pleasure that I bid you welcome to Washington."

Important Arrests by the United States Marshal.

United States Marshal Murray, on Wednesday, arrested four residents of this City and committed them to Fort Lafayette on a charge of being engaged in the business of running the blockade of Southern ports. One of the persons arrested is a sea Captain and the other three are engaged in mercantile pursuits in this City. A large number of letters and documents were also seized, [illegible]

The information brought to light by the letters and documents will doubtless lead to further arrests.

The following is the rumored state of the case: A Mr. Gouge, who, some time since, obtained a patent for a new fuse, and has been engaged in manufacturing the article extensively, is said to be the chief party now in durance charged with having, in some roundabout way, furnished the rebels with his new invention, which is chiefly adapted to the explosion of military mines and torpedoes. Two others, Crocker and McKee, commission merchants, are also held to have embarked in enterprises destined to greatly aid the enemies of the country; and one Oliver, a sea-captain, is likewise in custody for having agreed to carry the contraband goods to rebel ports. It seems, too, that by the discoveries connected with these arrests, quite a brisk and lucrative trade in munitions of war and other supplies with the South has been brought to light, and the end is not yet.

United States Cruisers Ordered out of British Ports.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 29.

The United States armed vessels George Maughan and Ethan Allen, engaged in cruising among the British islands, have been summarily ordered from some of the ports of Prince Edward's Island. A private letter from an officer attached to the former vessel, states that when at Charlottetown an order came from the Governor requiring both vessels to put to sea, a proclamation in the name of the Queen having been issued making the demand, which was promptly complied with. United States Treasury notes are at a heavy discount, at the various ports of those islands. Ship supplies and stores can only be obtained by the payment of coin.

Income Tax in Brooklyn.

Most of our neighbors in Brooklyn have, like the rest of us, been reporting their annual income for the year 1862, and show, particularly on "the Heights," an exalted view of their ability to live comfortably. Several report their income at $100,000 and upward. The highest amount reported is $200,000 on which the tax is $10,000, for which sum the gentleman—a New-York merchant, residing on the Heights—sent his check yesterday to the Collector. The smallest income reported is one dollar—tax three cents—by a New-York broker. The Assessor, Wm. E. Robinson, Esq., returned his annual assessment list to the Collector the present week, and it foots up $480,773 73, of which $438,983 60 is the tax on income. This, taken with the monthly returns made in the past year, foot up considerably over a million.

The list covers 319 pages, of 40 lines each, which indicates ten or twelve thousand assessments in this single list.

The following table shows the amount assessed and returned in each month and the amount of the present annual return. A good many have doubtless failed to report, but will be brought up on future lists, in some cases with the penalties which the law provides for delinquents. The Assessor is still willing to receive returns at his office, No. 13 Court-street.

The Quota of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Thursday, Oct. 29.

Gov. Andrew has issued an order assigning the quotas of the several cities and towns under the President's last call for troops, and designating new regiments to be raised. The bounties offered for recruits are $302, in addition to a State bounty of $50 to new recruits, and $402 and the State bounty of $50 to veterans. The Governor calls upon the whole people to unite with fervid devotion to a cause sacred as all our hopes, and secure to the National armies a reinforcement which will render them invincible, and assure them of victory wherever and whenever they meet an enemy. The work of recruiting will be entered on in earnest, and prosecuted with diligence until the full quota of the State is obtained.

A recruit was shot through his neck in Blackstone-street to-day, while in the act of deserting. The wound will probably prove fatal.

Fatal Railway Accident—Sudden Death.

HARTFORD, Thursday, Oct. 29.

Thomas Barrows, Jr., President of the American Mills at Rockville, was instantly killed in the depot in this city this evening. He had arrived on the train from Boston, on his way home, and was passing from the baggage to the smoking-car just before the train passed into the depot, when he fell between the cars. One arm was cut off and his head was badly crushed. Mr. Barrows was well known in New-York and Boston as a business man. His loss to Rockville will be very great.

Dr. Lucius Abbott, a stout, healthy man, 65 years of age, until lately a Surgeon in the regular army, dropped dead in the street this afternoon. He was to leave in a few minutes by the New-York boat for Orange, N. J., where he was to spend the Winter.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Thursday, Oct. 29.

Arrived steamer Golden Age, from Panama; ship Harry, from East Boston; steamer Sierra Nevada, with $200,000 in treasure from Oregon, and $65,000 from British Columbia.

The stock of merchandise here is running lower. Trade is active, and prices tend upward.

The National Finances.

PHILADELPHIA, Thursday, Oct. 29.

The subscription agent reports the sale of $5,712,000—the largest sale yet made in any one day. One Boston house took over $2,000,000. At this rate the amount remaining unsold will be consumed in six weeks or less. The ten days' notice, which was published some time since, only referred to the withdrawal of the loan by the Secretary, while the amount authorized was unsold. So little remains that it will probably be left to be exhausted on the principle of "first come first served."

Political.

SYRACUSE, Thursday, Oct. 29.

There was a large Union demonstration here to-day. Deputations came in from all the country towns around. Speeches were made by Messrs. Lane of Indiana, Howard of Michigan, Dickinson, Gen. Morton's Gold Pens are now sold at the same prices as before the commencement of the war; this is entirely owing to the Manufacturer's improvements in machinery, his present large Retail Business and Cash-in-Advance System; for, until he commenced to advertise, his business was done on Credit and strictly with the Trade.

The Morton Gold Pens are the only ones sold at old prices, as the makers of all other Gold Pens charge the Premium on the Gold, Government Tax, &c.; but Morton has in no case changed his prices, Wholesale or Retail.

Of the great numbers sent by mail to all parts of the world during the past few years, not one in a thousand has failed to reach its destination in safety; showing that the Morton Gold Pen can be obtained by any one, in every part of the world, at the same price, postage only excepted.

Reader, you can have an enduring, always ready, and reliable Gold Pen, exactly adapted to your hand and style of writing, which will do your writing vastly cheaper than Steel Pens; and at the present almost universal High-Pressure Price of everything, you can have a Morton Gold Pen cheaper, in proportion to the labor spent upon it and material used, than any other Gold Pen in the World. READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. VON EISENBERG has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. VON EISENBERG is as skillful as it is successful. It is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. VON EISENBERG, is now clear and good! Indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. [illegible] st., New-York.

NEW-YORK, Sept. [illegible]

I have been suffering for years past from a severe Catarrh, with a great heaviness over my eyes, with a severe depression, great uneasiness, and pain in my head, great difficulty in breathing, and a continual accumulation in my nostrils, which gave me restless nights for several years. I have consulted several physicians, who pronounced me to be consumptive. What I suffered for so long a time is indescribable. My system was entirely disarranged and greatly debilitated. I not only felt weak, but I had a cloud continually before my eyes, and my ears were so affected that I was threatened with a total loss of hearing. I must say, I think, I was guided by Providence to come to Dr. Von Eisenberg, who not only cured me of my Catarrh by removing an astonishing quantity of disagreeable matter from my head, but he restored me to perfect health, a blessing I have not enjoyed for many years. Now I enjoy a good night's rest, and pursue my business with comfort. I must acknowledge that Dr. Von Eisenberg's mild and scientific treatment for Catarrh deserves the highest commendation, as the principle which directs his system of curing Catarrh is such as to render success certain.

JAMES FURLONG, No. [illegible] av.

No. [illegible] NEW-YORK, Feb. [illegible], 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in this City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in the success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an enviable reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the simplest and most direct mode of restoring the hearing, and, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR,

NEW-YORK, [illegible], 1863.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of [illegible] with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimonial.

SIGHT RESTORED.

NEW-YORK, June [illegible], 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am now completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses, to me, after being deprived of it for four years. I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG'S unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have consulted several physicians in vain.

LIGHTHILL'S BOOK ON DEAFNESS.

A NEW EDITION NOW READY

OF

THE POPULAR TREATISE

ON

DEAFNESS,

ITS CAUSES AND PREVENTION.

BY

DR. E. B. LIGHTHILL.

One Small 12mo, with Illustrations. Price $1.

The very remarkable sale of this little volume is a sufficient guarantee of its popularity and value. Five editions have been sold within as many months, and a sixth is just ready.

The author's aim has been to produce a book FOR THE PEOPLE, not for the medical profession, but for afflicted individuals and families, who, wishing information upon the subject, have heretofore been at a loss for any work treating in unprofessional language upon Deafness and its attending evils. This book fills such a vacuum. It is clear and comprehensive.

The New-York Observer says: "There is a large amount of useful information here embodied for the million, to teach them how to guard against deafness, and how to treat it when coming on."

The Boston Commercial Bulletin says: "An excellent and comprehensive little treatise, written in a clear and common-sense style, easily understood."

"The suggestions in relation to the every-day treatment of the ear are of the most valuable kind, and should be within the reach of every family."—Buffalo Courier.

The work should find its way into the hands of every individual suffering with deafness, or any accompanying affliction. Its value will be at once appreciated.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.

The first symptom [illegible] of dryness and heat in the nose, and a frequent inclination to sneezing. [illegible]

[illegible] it may be safely asserted that after hereditary predisposition, catarrh is the most frequent and important cause of this fatal complaint.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

[illegible] Wis., Sept. [illegible], 1863.

* * * I have been in the army hospital fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers.

HAVEMEYER MANSION, [illegible]-st.,
NEW-YORK, Aug. [illegible], 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in the head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite increased, strength and health followed.

Respectfully,
MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

Rev. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

Agent for Colgate & Co., No. [illegible] Broadway.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S.—T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and imposter. It is only put up in our log-cabin bottles. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States Stamp over the cork, and our signature on steel plate side label.

THE BROOKLYN MAYORALTY.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 29, 1863.

To the Citizens of Brooklyn:

A report having been freely circulated that I intend to withdraw from the present canvass, I desire to flatly contradict all such malicious rumors. I have only to say that I am the fairly chosen nominee of the Union Convention. By this I understand that I am the candidate of those patriotic and truly loyal men whose sentiments rise above all party considerations, and who sustain their country and its Government to the end. My life, my fortune, and my whole heart are bound up in the principles so plainly and unequivocally set forth by that Convention. I did not seek the nomination, but being considered worthy, and so indorsed, I desire it to be understood that I am the loyal Union candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn, and shall so remain until the polls close on the 3d of November next.

Respectfully, S. M. WOOD.

NEW-YORK, Thursday, Oct. 29, 1863.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

There are three candidates for the Brooklyn Mayoralty—Col. WOOD, Union, PRINCE, Copperhead, and KALBFLEISCH, Independent Democrat. Some of the Republican papers are giving Mr. KALBFLEISCH a half support, and their efforts tend to draw off Republican votes from WOOD and elect PRINCE. Mr. KALBFLEISCH is Coppery, and was one of the leaders in getting up meetings of malcontents, and finally went to Albany last Winter and tried to induce Mr. CALLICOT to stand by the Democratic party. If the Republican Unionists stand by Col. WOOD he will certainly be elected—otherwise they will elect PRINCE.

Col. WOOD, at the commencement of the war, was President of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen, but tore himself away from party ties and volunteered his regiment—the Brooklyn Fourteenth—for three months. This offer not being accepted, he volunteered the regiment for the war. What he and they did as soldiers is a matter of history. He stood firm for the old flag and Union while a prisoner at Richmond. He was one of those drawn to be hung, but still he stood firm. Now he has, unsolicited on his part, received the Union nomination for Mayor, and if the Republicans stand by him he will be elected.

The Kohnstamm Frauds.

A CARD FROM LIEUT.-COL. REEVES.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

A communication appears in your "Special Washington Dispatches" this morning, which, without explanation, is calculated to mislead.

It is true, as stated, that an indictment was found against me by the Grand Jury in the United States Circuit Court, last June, without a particle of evidence, as I understand, that could implicate me in what are called "the Kohnstamm frauds."

A very large minority of the Grand Jury deemed the entire proceedings against me unwarranted by anything that was submitted in evidence before them.

The origin of this vindictive assault upon me, may be discovered and made public, earlier than the authors of it believe.

In the meantime, any and every investigation, civil or military, is earnestly and anxiously invited into my conduct as United States Mustering and Disbursing Officer in this City.

It would be strange, if in the disbursement of millions of dollars during such a period as the present, error should not have been committed, and fraudulent bills paid, especially where, as is well known, a Disbursing officer is obliged to depend upon the certificates of officers—many of whom he knows nothing of—as to the validity of accounts.

As well might an indictment be found against the cashier of a bank for paying a fraudulent check.

If service in the United States army during a period of 27 years, without a reflection upon my honor, or fidelity to this Government, is no protection against such attacks, then are the highest incentives which can excite an officer of the army to the faithful performance of duty, of no avail, and no value.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,

J. V. D. REEVE,
Lieutenant-Colonel U. S. A.

FROM F. L. CAGWIN, ESQ.,
PRESIDENT CITY BANK, JOLIET, ILL.

Dr. Lighthill:

DEAR SIR: It affords me the greatest satisfaction to be able to inform you that I am still improving, and have the highest hopes that my ear will be entirely well by the time you at first mentioned it would take to effect a cure. I can say that I am truly thankful to the kind Providence which directed me to you. Since the first few days' use of your prescription, my ear has improved, and almost at once. I was relieved from a very depressed state of feeling and an almost intolerable case, to an elastic and hopeful state of mind. What Dr. John Nott replied to me as his experience, has been mine so far. My catarrhal trouble seems very much better also, and, indeed, altogether my health never was so good. I am weighing some five pounds more than is usual for me, (and more than I ever weighed before.)

I can but hope that it may be the good fortune of many with like troubles, to fall in the way of the benefit of your skill, and knowing how great the fear of imposition is with those, who in time past, may like myself have suffered by it, and feeling a wish, sincerely at this time, to aid and commend you in establishing a high and deserved position amongst us in your profession, I beg, therefore, that you will not hesitate to refer to me, as it may be of use. I also inclose herewith, Professor Nott's reply to my letter of inquiries, which I deem highly creditable to you, and of great importance to others, as it has been to me. I will visit you again soon. In the meantime, believe me, Yours, very sincerely,

JOLIET, Ill., July 17, 1863. F. L. CAGWIN.

FROM REV. JOHN NOTT, D. D.,
PROFESSOR IN UNION COLLEGE, SCHENECTADY, NEW-YORK.

FONDA, N. Y., April 29, 1863.

F. L. Cagwin, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: I received your letter of April 23 to-day. I have had from infancy one very deaf ear, and always discharging more or less offensive matter. This year both ears became diseased, running very much, very offensive, producing the greatest debility of body and depression of spirits, and my hearing impaired to the highest degree. In such a condition, I placed myself under the care of Dr. Lighthill. He has fully restored me. I hear well, the dizziness and the discharge have been removed, and have not returned. The stopping of the running has given me the highest elasticity and vigor of body, and a flow of spirits, while my fears were that stopping the discharge would prove detrimental or dangerous.

I esteem, or rather have learned to esteem, Dr. Lighthill—for he was a stranger to me until I was his patient—as a gentleman and a man of science, in whom the highest confidence may be placed. Yours, very truly,

JOHN NOTT.

A boy of mine, four years old, who had been quite hard of hearing for over a year, has been completely restored by Dr. Lighthill, after a short course of treatment.

A. C. HEWLETT, No. 86 6th-av.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 1, 1863.

This is to certify that I have been troubled for some time with partial deafness and a very unpleasant singing sound in the head, which rendered conversation difficult, except in a loud tone of voice. I take great pleasure in stating that under the skillful and painless treatment of Dr. Lighthill my hearing has been restored, and the singing sound in the head has ceased.

FRIENDS

AND

OF THE

BRAVE

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS!

HOLLOWAY'S

PILLS AND OINTMENT!

All who have Friends and Relations in the Army or Navy should take especial care that they be supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE, INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

Those feelings which so sadden us usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and, as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY, INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that HOLLOWAY'S PILLS should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach, and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS! ATTENTION!!
INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured, if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used, as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS, EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning six or eight Pills to cool the system and prevent inflammation. Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these valuable remedies.

THE SOLDIERS' TRUE FRIEND!
ALWAYS READY.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
SOLDIERS, ATTENTION!

See to your own health; do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested; they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks. For over forty years Doctor HOLLOWAY has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaklava for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES; many a time his special agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIER IN CAMP,

DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY,
SORES AND SCROFULOUS
ERUPTIONS,

all disappear like a charm before these PILLS and OINTMENT; and now, while the cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

☞ Read the following brief note received from one of our brave soldiers now in the field:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27, 1862.

Thomas Holloway, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: Please send me one dozen large-sized boxes of your valuable Pills. I have now recovered my health thanks to the efficacy of your Pills, and do not want to leave this city without them. Please dispatch them by quickest route. Inclosed please find money to pay for medicines, also the stamp duty.

Yours, very truly,
S. R. HARDLY, 9th Cavalry,
New-York.

CAUTION!

None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW-YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the manufactory of Prof. HOLLOWAY, No. 80 Maiden-lane, New-York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Wakefulness, Pain in the Back, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin.

ERUPTIONS ON THE FACE,

PALLID COUNTENANCE.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this Medicine invariably removes, soon follows Fatuity, Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases," INSANITY and CONSUMPTION. Many are aware of the cause of their sufferings, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy Deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The constitution once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the System, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU INVARIABLY DOES.

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. [illegible]

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 Forsyth-st., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most sceptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction, causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be puerile; but as a measure of precaution to induce all to call on you at once without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,

EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.
